

Two lectures within one Special Interest Morning with Janet Gough OBE
on Tuesday 3rd March 2020

1. Cathedrals, safe places to do risky things? A ravishingly illustrated virtual tour of the Church of England's magnificent 42 cathedrals, jewels in the crown of our built heritage, some recognised as World Heritage Sites. Audiences will be treated to an overview of cathedral history and architectural evolution including their surprising stories and extraordinary treasures. The changing role of cathedrals in society both in the past and present day is also discussed.

2. How to pick a favourite Church She has chosen her favorite church from every Church of England diocese to illustrate the incredible history and architecture of church buildings bound up with the story of England over the last 1400 years. She shares with the audience what can be found visiting churches and how they might enhance their own appreciation of different churches. And she discusses the many joys and challenges of maintaining this extraordinary ecclesiastical heritage today.
